

DEVELOPMENT GUIDELINES

General Provisions

PUD Purpose Statement:

This unique property is situated on the westerly fringe of a transitional zoning area from downtown core to the edge of single-family residential in the Delano neighborhood. Recently within the Delano transitional fringe area there has been many properties changing from commercial/industrial to mixed-use. Directly east of this property there is GC - General Commercial zoning classification; the least restrictive commercial zoning district. Directly west and south of this property there is SF-5 Single-Family zoning classifications and with some TF-5 Two-Family zoning intermixed within the SF-5 areas; generally the most restrictive urban zoning districts. To the northeast of the property there is a small parcel being B-Multi-Family zoning classification. North of the property are civic uses such as museums and parks separated by the Arkansas River. The subject property has views of unique iconic Wichita landmarks. It is also situated along McLean Boulevard an arterial street and connector of downtown to west Wichita.

The present land use for the bulk of the property is a medical therapy business. The business performs speech, physical, occupational, and similar therapies with a focus on helping children and families succeed. The owners has plans to offer other related personal care and personal improvement services such as massage therapy to further enhance their offerings. Other existing land uses include rental homes.

While the property is already a mixed-use development this PUD is intended to allow for the property to redevelop into a more conventional mixed-use development with the potential for a mix of residential and office type uses as set forth herein. The property is within the D-O Delano Neighborhood Overlay District so there are may existing provisions that protect the neighboring single family homes. This PUD is crafted to balance and enhance the needs of owners being and to enhance a transitional zoning situated at the edge of urban redevelopment along with the requirements of the D-O Neighborhood Overlay District. Principally the Land uses proposed are those of the GO - General Office with other land uses being permitted for the enhanced desired offerings. This PUD reflects the highest and best uses for the subject property while provisioning for balanced needs of the neighboring properties.
