PROPOSED AGENDA DATE: July 24, 1996

COMMISSION DISTRICT #4

Valley Center PC Recommendation: Approve (8-0).

MAPC Recommendation: Approve (10-1), subject to Protective Overlay limiting the property to agricultural-related uses.

Staff Recommendation: Approve.

Background/Discussion: The applicant requests a zone change from 'RR' Rural Residential to 'LI' Limited Industrial for a 5 acre unplatted tract generally located in an area south of 85th Street North, approximately 1/4 mile west of Hoover Road. The Andale Farmer's CO-OP is requesting the zone change to allow the placement of one 18,000 gallon liquid petroleum gas (propane) storage tank.

The application area is located in a relatively remote area west of the Big Ditch, approximately 1.5 miles west of Valley Center. The site is surrounded by 'RR' Rural Residential zoning, and is currently used for agricultural uses. The property owner's house is located approximately 1/4 mile north of the proposed site of the storage tank.

The site plan shows a ladle-shaped application area that includes an 1/8 mile access road and a triangular-shaped area that will be the location of the storage tank. Although the application area contains 5 acres, the Andale CO-OP plans to use approximately 1 to 2 acres for the LP tank that will be fenced with 6 foot chainlink. Both the fenced storage area and the access road will be graveled, and there will be gates at the entrance to the access road at 85th Street as well as at the storage tank.

The storage of LP gas is regulated by the State Board of Agriculture. The Board makes yearly inspections of these facilities, while the CO-OP's insurance company conducts 6 month inspections. All employees working with LP gas are required to be certified by the State. Currently, there is one truck carrying propane for the CO-OP's 400 customers within a 10 mile radius of this site. Traffic to this site will be cyclical depending on such factors as heating seasons and periods of crop irrigation.

No hydric soils commonly associated with wetlands are located on the site, according to the Soil Survey of Sedgwick County. Also, no portion of the application area is located within a 100-year floodplain, according to the FEMA maps.

During the Planning Commission's discussion of this matter, questions concerning the environmental impacts of the storage tanks were asked by the Commission. The applicant detailed the safety measures used to maintain the storage tanks, as well as the Andale CO-OP's need to locate the tanks at this site. After discussion, the MAPC voted (10-1) to approve the request as recommended by staff with additional provisions.

Recommended Action: 1. Adopt the findings of fact of the Metropolitan Area Planning Commission and approve the zone change, subject to the recommended Protective Overlay limiting the property to agricultural-related uses.

2. Return to the Planning Commission for reconsideration.

(An override of the Planning Commission's recommendation requires a 2/3rd majority vote of the membership of the governing body on first hearing).
