

6. The Contractor shall restore the site following construction to the pre-construction condition of the property including replacement of fence, seeding, and restoration of the disturbed property to the original grade.

