

The contractor is responsible for placing adequate warnings and/or deterrents for pedestrians not to enter the construction area. This work shall meet with the approval of the Engineer.

45