JAMES H. BORING, ARMY AIR FORCE
Served: 1943 to 1946
World War II (1941-1945)

From: Wichita, KS
My dad was a B-17 waist gunner for that purpose. We need to stop and ponder the great sacrifices members of the military make for each of us and give thanks for their service - Jim Beasley, nephew

STAFF SGT. JOSEPH FABER, AIR FORCE
Served: 1952 to 1956
Korean War (1950-1953)

From: Wichita, KS
Joe Faber was born in Iowa in 1932. He married Barbara Vernia in 1952 and has four children. The same year as his marriage, Joe enlisted in the Air Force, serving until 1956. He was last stationed at Elmendorf Air Force Base in Anchorage, Alaska, in the 6981st Radio Group as a Morse Code Radio Intercept Officer, where he listened to the "clicks." After the Air Force, he moved to Wichita with his family and worked at Beech Aircraft until his retirement in 1996. He has enjoyed a retirement of golf, music and time spent with Barbara until her death in 2020. Joe continues to live in Wichita with his dog, Sadie. Dad, Grampa, Great-papa: We know how hard you worked to protect and to serve our country. The wife you have in this service is well deserved. We are grateful for your country and to your family. We love you (ditto). Don't take any wooden nickle! - Kelsey Faber, granddaughter

SGT. WAYNE E. FAHRBACH, ARMY
Served: 1941 to 1945
World War II (1941-1945)

From: Abilene, KS
Died: May 23, 2017
Wayne Eugene Fahrbach served in the Army during World War II. He was proud of his service and enjoyed sharing stories about his service. He was one of the brave soldiers who landed on Omaha Beach on D-Day. In a story, he said that as they were approaching the beach, he was scared to death. He asked his commander, "What if I don't get off?" His commander told him, "You can either get shot in the back, or you can take your chance on the beach, but you are getting off one way or the other." He said he jumped off when they hit the beach and ran like hell! He was one of the lucky soldiers to survive the battle on Omaha Beach and lived until he was 96. A special thanks to my dad for serving our country. My brother and I took him to the dedication of the World War II Memorial. It was an honor to take him, and his memory will always be cherished. Wayne Fahrbach was a proud veteran and wore his World War II cap every day. - Connie Fahrbach, daughter

SGT. MORRIS P. COCKING, ARMY
Served: 1942 to 1945
World War II (1941-1945)

From: Wichita, KS
Morris was in the fighting war from D-Day to Berlin. He had become an aide to an officer in Berlin. Morris carried a bottle of Coca-Cola throughout the war in his backpack, thinking he would drink it after the U.S. victory. While he was in Berlin working as an aide, the officer he worked for came and asked if he still had the bottle of Coke. He told Morris that Gen. Eisenhower was looking for a Coke, but they didn't have any at the officer's club. Morris offered to give his Coke for Ike. The attached picture is the General thanking Morris (at left) with his

MAJ. ROBERT W. FIZER, AIR FORCE
Served: 1951 to 1971
Korean War (1950-1953) and 16 months of combat missions in Vietnam in 1966 and 1967

From: Wichita, KS
Robert W. Fizer left Staten Island at age 18 to join the Air Force. After initial training, his first assignment was a B-29 Fizer tall gunner, but through the Aviation Cadet program, he was able to go to flight training and become a fighter pilot. He flew the F-84, F-86, and his favorite, the F-100 Super Sabre. During his career, he spent a year in Korea and 16 months in combat in Vietnam where he received a Distinguished Flying Commendation. Maj. Fizer's peace time assignments included training other fighter pilots at Luke Air Force Base in Phoenix and tours in the Philippines and Tripoli, Libya. Military life was not all work, and Bob has a wonderful story about the time he got to fly in a movie, "The Hunters," starring Robert Mitchum. Unfortunately, he was playing a bad pilot and ended in a blazing crash in the movie. Retirement after twenty years in the Air Force did not end Bob's flying career. He was hired by Cessna early in the development of the Citation program as a demonstration pilot. He advanced to manager of flight operations for the Citation Division and flew to over 120 countries around the world. In 1983, he and another pilot set a speed record flying a Citation 650 from Gander to Paris for the Paris Air Show. His retirement from Cessna after 19 years left him to spin flying stories to his golf buddies at Terradyne Golf Club, where he has had four holes in one. Bob Fizer has given his life and three children an interesting life, living in a variety of places, visiting many countries, and creating wonderful memories despite the hardships of a military life. He has the appreciation of many young pilots for the quality of his instruction, as well as other pilots with whom he has worked. Most of all, like all military personnel, he should have the gratitude of our country for his willingness to place his life in the service of his country. - Barbara Fizer, wife

LEROY FREEMAN, ARMY
From: Wichita, KS
Died: Jan. 9, 2021
Thank you for your service from your daughter, Gina Freeman.

MASTER SGT. DAN GEHMAN, AIR FORCE
Served: 1966 to 1986
Vietnam War (1962-1973)

From: Wichita, KS
Thank you for your service from your spouse, Nelma Gehman.

STAFF SGT. CLIFTON W. GILLENWATER, AIR FORCE
Served: 1948 to 1955
From: Wichita, KS
Staff Sgt. Clifton W. Gillenwater began his military service in 1948 (while still a student at the Clifton W. Gillenwater University of Wichita) as a member of the Air Guard's 127th Fighter Squadron at Wichita Municipal Airport. After graduation he enlisted in the United States Air Force. He completed basic training in the winter of 1952 at Sampson Air Force Base in Geneva, New York, and was assigned to Reese Air Force Base in Lubbock, Texas, home of the 3500th Pilot Training

Wing. During the summer of 1953, he relocated to Lowry Air Force Base in Denver, where he completed a course of study at the Air Training Command in accounting. He returned to Reese Air Force Base before being ordered overseas the following spring. He reported to Camp Kilmer, New Jersey, and boarded the USNS General F. P. Hodges in May of 1954 for a 20-day voyage to Tripoli, Libya. During his time in Tripoli, he was stationed at Wheelus Air Base, a 20-square-mile facility that hosted over 15,000 military personnel and their dependents. He continued his accounting training while on TDY to Wiesbaden, Germany, in 1954 and received a promotion to Airman 1st class in August of that year. He remained overseas for the duration of his 18-month assignment, returning to the states via Manhattan Beach AFS in Brooklyn, New York, in November of 1955. He was honorably discharged from the Armed Forces of the United States of America, with the rank of Staff Sergeant, later that same year. - Jeffrey Gillenwater, son

AVIATION/FLIGHT INSTRUCTOR LAURA M. GRUBBS, NAVY
Served: 1948 to 1945
World War II (1941-1945)

From: Meade, KS
Died: 2008
Laura was born in a house in Meade County, Kansas, in 1910. After surviving the Great Depression and Dust Bowl days in Southwest Kansas teaching in one-room schools, she enlisted in the Navy in 1943 because of the WAVES (Women Accepted for Voluntary Emergency Service). After training, Laura was assigned to the largest Naval Air Station in the world in Corpus Christi, Texas, where she taught pilots, co-pilots and navigators how to use radio navigation and instrument flight using the Link Trainer. Her students included U.S. Naval personnel from all 48 states, as well as cadets from Latin American allies and Great Britain. The young women who served in the WAVES left their homes, families, underwent rigorous military training, endured housing accommodations which were less than comfortable and sometimes experienced a hostile work environment because they were women who were trained and assumed jobs previously held by men. Even though these women never served on the front lines, their contributions to the war effort should be remembered and honored. So it was that a young woman from the Kansas prairies became a true pioneer as part of the Greatest Generation who sacrificed so much to serve in the military of the great nation during very uncertain times. Laura completed her military service in 1945 as WWII ended. She returned to Kansas to teach school until she moved to Oregon in 1947, where she continued her teaching career and education. Laura Grubbs was 'Aunt Laura' to my three siblings and me. We loved her deeply, and she was a blessing to so many people during her 97-year journey through life on earth. We were always very excited to have an 'Aunt Laura' visit each summer since she lived in far away Oregon, brought unusual surprises for each of us and entertained us with stories about her teacher friends, students, many church-related activities and adventures on Oregon's coast and mountains. - Roger Kepley, nephew

ROBERT E. JOHNSON, ARMY AND MARINE CORPS
Served: 1941 to 1944
World War II (1941-1945)

From: Mt. Hope, KS
Died: May 3, 1982
Robert started his military service with the Army, Company B, 137th Infantry, then transferred to the 167th Infantry. He was on a ship with the Army and had the opportunity to transfer to the Marine Corps. He did this and was part of combat at Guadalcanal, with the 1st Marine Division. He was wounded in combat while with the Marines. After his service, he farmed and custom harvested until his death, raising eight children with his wife, Alvera. Bob and Alvera are in the Custom Harvester's Hall of Fame, too. Thank you, Dad. You taught each of us to be patriotic, love our country and to support veterans. - Marcy K Aycock, daughter

ROBERT R. MARTIN, AIR FORCE
Vietnam War (1962-1973)

From: Wichita, KS
Died: July 17, 2019
My father came to the U.S. at 12 years old. He enlisted prior to the draft and served throughout the Vietnam War. Unfortunately, he was injured while on duty on an air base and was medically discharged. Years of mental and physical health problems took their toll on my father. His injuries didn't survive, his mental health meds eventually precluded him from working, and he was homeless for a little while. PTSD and depression treatment along with pain management from knee and back injuries were his only place he found community. I will always appreciate the staff and doctors that took care of him right up until the end. Our veterans need more than just a thank you on Nov. 11 or a discount. They have suffered, and some have lost. We need to be compassionate for our houseless, struggling with substance abuse or mental health issues. There's a good chance that they are a veteran and deserve better. - Faith Martin, daughter

SEAMAN 1ST CLASS WALTER A. MCKAIN, NAVY
Served: 1944 to 1946
World War II (1941-1945)

From: Wichita, KS
Died: Dec. 1, 2017
Walter McKain served as an enlisted sailor in WWII. His duties as a Fire Controlman included servicing and maintaining the weapons on board ship. He served with two ships, both Landing Ship-Tank (LST) type, in the Pacific Theater. His missions included laying smoke screens near shore to support air raids and delivering supplies and troops to islands throughout the region. Walter (AKA Daddy and Poppy) was an extremely proud man who was very humble about his service years. After returning from the war, he married his high school sweetheart - a union that lasted 54 years. He never met a stranger and would mentor anyone who expressed an interest. He was loved by many and always had a kind word for anyone he knew. His family carries on his legacy of honesty, loyalty and trying to set the best in any situation. For that, we will always be grateful. - Brenda Kuhns, daughter

JERRY D. PAPPAN, ARMY
Served: 1965 to 1967
Vietnam War (1962-1973)

From: Derby, KS
Jerry made it home safe, but he had a brother, Bobby, who was 13 months younger and was drafted after Jerry came home. He was wounded in Vietnam and died on his way to Denver for prosthesis. We should all thank our Vietnam veterans because they were not appreciated or thanked when they came home from that war. - Linda Pappan, wife

MASTER SGT. PAUL D. WARD, AIR FORCE
Served: 1955 to 1975
