

Standing west the access gate off Crestway, looking west toward the playground equipment that may need to be temporarily moved in order to get equipment between the trees.

Looking northeast and east of the excavation area to show the playground equipment.